Does your project count as course-based research?

START HERE:

Are you conducting research involving humans?
Not sure what counts as research? Click here.

YES

Is the research being carried out by students as part of a course?

YES

Is the course a thesis or independent study course?

YES

Is the research below minimal risk?
Not sure what counts as minimal risk? Click here.

NO

Are you planning to share the data for any research purposes, as defined in the TCPS2? (e.g., publish in a scholarly journal, present at a research conference, etc.)

NO

Your research may qualify as course-based research!
Please complete a course-based application in IRISS.

For further guidance on course-based research, click here.
For access to IRISS, click here.

NO

This probably isn’t the document for you.

Please submit your project to the Conjoint Faculties Research Ethics Board (CFREB).
Visit the CFREB website for more information.